

Happy frickin' holidays!

We know, we know, it's been forever since we wrote. PLEASE FORGIVE US!! We've been busy conquering new lands, spelunking in volcanoes, tubing through crocodile-infested waters... You know how things can get crazy. Anyway, the A Kicking Outdoor Club is currently on sabbatical until the New Year. We owe you a couple of BTORs and stuff in the meantime. Stay tuned and check your inboxes and/or our kick-a website!
